Community memorial for STS-107 crew is Wednesday

Marshall Center Director Art Stephenson and Huntsville Mayor Loretta Spencer will speak at noon Wednesday at a Huntsville community memorial service for the Columbia astronauts. All Marshall team members are invited to attend at the Von Braun Center. Dr. N. Jan Davis, director of Marshall's Flight Projects Directorate, will share her personal recollections regarding the STS-107 crew. Local clergy of different faiths will offer words of comfort during the service. U.S. Rep. Bud Cramer and Alabama Gov. Bob Riley also are expected to attend the service. Parking is free in the city garage on Monroe Street.
